FINANCE DEPARTMENT

G.O. No. 96, 4th April 1939

Madras Financial and Account Code, Volume I—Purchase of conveyances under Article 286—Time limit for furnishing the certificate as to the utilization of the advance—Reduced from three months to one month—Amendment issued.

Order—No. 96, Finance, dated 4th April 1939.

Under Note 2 to Article 286 of the Madras Financial and Account Code, a Government Servant who draws a conveyance advance should produce before the Audit Officer within three months from the date on which he drew the advance a certificate stating that the amount of the advance has been fully utilized on the object for which it was granted and, when the price actually paid for the conveyance is less than the amount of the advance taken, that the balance over and above the price actually paid has been refunded into the treasury. His Excellency the Governor considers that the period allowed for furnishing the certificate may be reduced to one month, and is hereby pleased to direct accordingly.

The following amendment to the Madras Financial and Account Code is accordingly issued:—

Page 156, Article 286, Note 2.—For the words 'three months' occurring in the second line, substitute the words 'one month.'

in the notified area from the other property of the claimant, and the loss caused by injurious affection to other property movable or immovable, or the earnings of the claimant and such other relevant considerations as may be disclosed during the Revenue Officer's enquiry.

34. Damage for interference with the rights or privileges or both shall be assessed solely with reference to the material loss sustained by the claimant by such interference.

35. If the damage to a building is so great that it cannot be repaired, the full cost of such building (as it was at the commencement of the operations) less the cost of the existing materials, if any, together with 15 per cent of the difference shall be awarded as compensation. If the claimant does not elect to take the materials, they shall be handed over to the Officer Commanding for disposal and the full value of the building paid to the claimant.

36. If a land is permanently impaired in value, the difference between the original market value and the value in its impaired state plus 15 per cent of such difference shall be paid to the claimant as compensation.

37. Besides compensation for the damages arising from manoeuvres or field firing or artillery practice, expenses reasonably incurred in protecting the person, property, rights and privileges of a claimant during the time of the operation shall also be allowed.

38. If a person is directed to remove himself or his domestic animals from any danger zone under sub-section (2) of section 10 of the Act, the expenses on such removal as estimated by the Revenue Officer, shall be paid at least 12 hours in advance of the hour before which the evacuation has to be completed.

39. The minimum amount of compensation payable for the exclusion or removal of a person or domestic animal from any place declared to be a danger zone under sub-section (2) of section 10 of the Act shall be the amount required for the removal to the nearest place of safety and for meeting any extra cost of living or feeding charge or accommodation of the person or animal at current local rates that would have to be incurred during the period for which the exclusion is enforced.

40. No compensation shall be awarded for any damage caused to any person or property by the infringement of the warnings or instructions issued under the aforesaid rules.
